

Christian Apostolic Church Bulletin – March 30, 2007

Rev. Pascal Crites, visiting minister from Keyser, WV, preached "What is the Value of Your Vineyard?" using I Kings 21:1-4. King Ahab coveted the vineyard of his neighbor, Naboth. But the land was Naboth's family inheritance, and Naboth invoked Mosaic Law in refusing to sell it. At first Ahab baited Naboth, promising he would give him a better vineyard in exchange for his land, once sold. But Naboth was not fooled. Don't let the devil lie to you. He's after your vineyard. Don't trade your walk with God for the devil's cheap tricks. Be in love with the Word of God and your vineyard. Finally, Ahab and his wicked wife Jezebel had Naboth murdered in order to take his property, but God rose up and judged them for it. Down through the ages, Naboth is honored as a man of principle. Today, the devil sees our vineyard: our spiritual inheritance of baptism in Jesus name & receiving the Holy Ghost with speaking in tongues. Some so-called religious people don't want truth. But we don't need a "feel good religion." Sin is still sin, and it will send souls to hell. We need the truth, and preachers must preach truth to save sinners. The foolishness of preaching will save them that believe. How valuable is your vineyard? Be excited about your salvation! The devil wants us to sell out. Don't be enticed out of your vineyard. Sunday PM Bro Parry Harris Sr. a visiting minister from Salisbury, NC, preached "Onward Christian Apostolic Church." He exhorted the church to press forward. The pastor and elders have a vision for this church and we need to get behind them. Clarksburg needs the truth. We are the people who must speak this great truth to them. The song "Onward Christian Solider" was sung, and the saints marched around the church in a declaration of moving forward in God. Afterward, Bro. Pascal Crites. visiting minister from Keyser, WV, preached about keeping your dream alive. Your dream's not dead; it's alive. Sometimes things may seem hopeless, but keep rejoicing and believing. because your dream is alive. Often our ideas about the dream are wrong.

Wednesday PM Elder David Harris preached "I Must Survive!" using II Timothy 4:5. We must press God daily: What do I need to do to survive? We have to prepare for our eternal home as we would for a long backpacking trip. The Holy Bible is our survival manual. We need to repent, be baptized in the name of Jesus, receive the Holy Ghost, pray, fast do everything we know to do so that we can finish our course with joy. We must survive! We must finish this race! We must learn to trust one another. Have faith in God. We need to go to God and be desperate: What do I need to do to survive? God is our help. Elder Harris told many amazing testimonies of the miraculous power of God providing for the needs of the saints, oftentimes by leading some of the saints to uphold their brothers and sisters and help meet their needs. We must be in that survival mode!

A new pastor was visiting in the homes of his parishioners. At one house it seemed obvious that someone was at home, but no answer came to his repeated knocks at the door. Therefore, he took out a business card and wrote "Revelation 3:20" on the back of it and stuck it in the door. When the offering was processed the following Sunday, he found that his card had been returned. Added to it was this cryptic message, "Genesis 3:10." Reaching for his Bible to check out the citation, he broke up in gales of laughter. Revelation 3:20 begins "Behold, I stand at the door and knock." Genesis 3:10 reads, "I heard your voice in the garden and I was afraid for I was naked."

A minister waited in line to have his car filled with gas just before a long holiday weekend. The attendant worked quickly, but there were many cars ahead of him. Finally, the attendant motioned him toward a vacant pump. "Reverend," said the young man, "I'm so sorry about the delay. It seems as if everyone waits until the last minute to get ready for a long trip." The minister chuckled, "I know what you mean. It's the same in my business."

CAC Honors Brother Jack & Sister Cindy Murphy

Brother and Sister Murphy are true heroes of the faith who are bravely suffering through yet another of many trials in which Brother Murphy's health in body is being seriously hindered. Please keep them in your prayers each and every day.

Also, please remember in prayer Sister Verlie Mooring, who is still in a coma in Charleston after a heart attack and double-stroke, all brought on by septic shock from toxins spread through her system from a perforated bowel. The worst of the damage was already done before we learned of her condition last Sunday night, when we began praying for her. She is in grave condition. Bro. Mooring is praying for a miracle.
